B8 2009f OCLC Number: (OCoLC)430196746 Subject: Federal aid to education -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 Too often, we see those dreams start to die, not in junior and senior year but third and fourth and fifth and sixth grade, and students start to believe this isn't for them. So dramatically increasing access, dramatically increasing opportunity, trying to significantly alleviate the financial barriers for our young people going on to higher education is critically important. There are very, very few good jobs out there, as you well know, for students with just a high school diploma; and we have to be thinking of about some kind of 4-year institutions, 2-year community colleges, technical schools, whatever it might be, and making sure every child in this country knows if they work hard and want to go on to some form of higher education the resources are going to be there for them. Chairman S. How do you reach out and serve students PRATT from here to the Pacific coast, all over this great continental democracy How do you reach everybody that aspires to a college education with a Federal student loan Secretary D. That is a great question, and I think we need UNCAN to do a much better job of really marketing what is available. So we are talking about sending letters to literally every high school principal in the country, to every college guidance counselor who works in the high schools and letting them know about the dramatic increases in funding, whether it is Pell Grants or Perkins Loans or the tuition tax credits for the middle class, that...
