I believe you referred to the Presidents speech as a prayer but not a policy. Just recently, you published one of the most interesting and valuable dissertations on the role of religion in foreign policy. How would you apply this to the current Iraq situation LBRIGHT Ms. A. Well, I must state flat out that I believe in a sep-aration of church and State. But I do think that since large aspects of what is going on in Iraq has a religious basis, that we should consider trying to involve some religious leaders that might be able to work on some conflict resolution. I have named some that I know well, the grand mufti of Sara-jevo, Mr. Ceric, has a very good reputation, has worked in a very difficult area in the Balkans. We might also consider...
