A reply was sent back which afterward became a campaign cry and aided in the election of Taylor as president. It was: Gen. Taylor never surrenders. Shortly after that the Mexicans sent in a party under a white flag to Inquire what Gen Taylor was waiting for, and Old Rough and Ready sent back the following: Gen. Taylor is waiting for Gen. Santa Anna to surrender. All this occurred about February 22, which was Washington s birthday. The following day the fighting began in earnest. The Americans were at first driven back, and at one time It seemed as though the battle was lost. Gen. Taylor then gave his celebrated order to Bragg s artillery. It was, Give them a...
