Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Universities, Research and Brain Waste The research workers are makers of modern history as no other body of men are. The difference between the conditions under which our forefathers lived three hundred years ago and those under which we live to-day is due to the research workers. The layman little realizes what an influence individual men among these research workers exercise upon his daily life. In ordinary conversation the name of Shakespeare is heard more frequently than that of Newton and students of the great dramatist will be surprised to be told that Shakespeare as a factor in determining their lives is a bagatelle compared to Newton. The thought of the great scientist, as a matter of fact, permeates our civilization and can be traced distinctly in a multitude of conditions which surround our everyday life. To justify our statement, it suffices to refer briefly to Newton s discoveries of the calculus and the law of gravitation. The calculus is the basis of the greater part of higher mathematical analysis. It is the most powerful...
