Prion. 1 Paperback(s), 2012. soft. Book Condition: New. Modern headlines of royal infidelity and divorce are certainly nothing new, notes Nigel Cawthorne; people have always been captivated by the sexual misbehavior of the royals, and there has been plenty of it. Through the centuries Britain's various royal dynasties have shared a singular lack of sexual restraint, and this public fascination has not always been merely prurient; royal marriages, adultery, and splits have often had enormous political repercussions. In a waggish tone, Cawthorne follows the ongoing sexual farce from "Hal the Horny" (Henry VIII) and "Edward the Caresser" (Edward VII) to the royal antics of the present day. 249.
