

Jig

By Gustav Holst

Advance Music Gmbh Dez 2012, 2012. Notenblatt. Book
Condition: Neu. 312x238x15 mm. Neuware - The Jig is the first of the four movements of the St Paul's Suite (op.29, No. 2) written by the British composer Gustav Holst in 1912. Holst composed this work for the string orchestra of the St Paul's Girls School in Hammersmith where he had already been holding the position of Director of Music for seven years. The suite premiered in 1913. This vibrant and vivacious piece immediately captivates the listener. The folcloristic character of the theme and the playful use of the motivic material turn the Jig into a truly catchy tune . Even meter and harmony both hold a whole series of charming little surprises. The original version of the composition is characterized by an exquisite setting for string orchestra, which draws the rich and mellow quality of its overall sound especially from those many double stops mostly played as drones on open strings. Holst s composition starts from the key of D dorian and finally ends in C mixolydian. The arrangement on hand converts the string setting into a five-part saxophone setting, translating the characteristic features of the original s folcloristic style as...
