Biblioteca de Autores Cristianos, 2006. soft. Book Condition: New. «Hemos creído en el amor de Dios: así puede expresar el cristiano la opción fundamental de su vida. No se comienza a ser cristiano por una decisión ética o una gran idea, sino por el encuentro con un acontecimiento, con una Persona, que da un nuevo horizonte a la vida y, con ello, una orientación decisiva [. . .] La fe cristiana, poniendo el amor en el centro, ha asumido lo que era el núcleo de la fe de Israel, dándole al mismo tiempo una nueva profundidad y amplitud. En efecto, el israelita creyente reza cada día con las palabras del Libro del Deuteronomio que, como bien sabe, compendian el núcleo de su existencia: «Escucha, Israel: El Señor nuestro Dios es solamente uno. Amarás al Señor con todo el corazón, con toda el alma, con todas las fuerzas» (6,4-5). Jesús, haciendo de ambos un único precepto, ha unido este mandamiento del amor a Dios con el del amor al prójimo [. . .] Y, puesto que es Dios quien nos ha amado primero (cf. 1 Jn 4,10), ahora el amor ya no es sólo un «mandamiento», sino la respuesta al don del amor, con el cual viene a nuestro encuentro» (Deus caritas est, 1).
